HARRIMAN'S $260,000

Men Who Gave the Money to Elect Roosevelt.

DEPEW THE COLLECTOR.

Proved to Be an Expert at Making the Money Kings Give Up for the Eleventh Hour Campaign Fund in 1904.

New York, Sept. 9.—The Sunday

World prints the following:

The mystery concerning the campaign fund raised by Edward Henry Harriman on Oct. 29, 1904, "at the personal solicitation of President Roosevelt," has been cleared up by The World and is set forth below. The amount of the fund, names by the subscribers thereto, and the manner of its collection by Mr. Harriman and United States Senator Chauncey M. Depew have been obtained from sources that leave no room for question. The exact amount of the fund was $260,000, not $200,000, as has been stated. The names of the subscribers to it and the amount given by each of them are as follows:

Edward H. Harriman $50,000

H. McK. Twombly (representing the Vanderbilt interests) 25,000

Chauncey M. Depew (personal) 25,000

James Hays Hyde 25,000

The Equitable Life Assurance society 10,000

J. Pierpont Morgan 10,000

George W. Perkins (New York Life Insurance company) 10,000

H. H. Rogers 10,000

John D. Rockefeller 10,000

William Rockefeller 10,000

James Speyer and Banking interests 10,000

Cornelius N. Bliss (personal) 10,000

Several friends of Senator Depew

$5,000 each 35,000

Sent to Mr. Harriman in smaller donations 20,000

Total $260,000

This sum of money, exceeding by $60,000 the amount estimated by George B. Cortelyou, chairman of the Republican State Committee, to be necessary to insure the election of Mr.

Roosevelt as President, and Mr. Higgins as Governor, was collected by Mr.

Harriman and Senator Depew and turned over by Mr. Harriman to Cornelius

N. Bliss, treasurer of the Republican National Committee.

Mr. Bliss gave his check for the full amount to Mr. Cortelyou. The latter retained $60,000 of it for his own use in the state and gave his check for the remaining $200,000 to Mr. O'Neil.

Unprofitable Adam.

There is occasion for much beating about the bush for answers to many questions put by wise theologues to timid people, but one set of men found their match in the old Scotchman under examination for admission to church fellowship.

"What are the decrees of God?" she was solemnly asked.

"Indeed, I trow, he kens that best himself."

"What kind of a man was Adam?"

"On, just like ither folk!" was the quick reply.

The questioner insisted on a more definite answer. "Weel," said she, "he was just like Jeems Madden, ye ken."

"How so?"

"Weel, naeboddy got anything by him, and mony loss."

Naturally.

Two men met at the gate of the cemetery, and each with excessive politness bowed to the other to pass in before him. After a few minutes of this, when neither would give way, the younger of the two smiled and said:

"You are the elder of the two, so naturally you ought to go first,"—

Sourire.

Run and Unrun.

"When I first went to housekeeping

I tried to run everything. I ended with nothing running."

"Absolutely nothing?"

"Well, perhaps the gamut of the emotions now and then."—New York

A Fortunate Young Lady.

Miss Jennie Martin, 176 North Paul street, Rochester, N. Y., says: "I suffered long from kidney complaints—home physicians and their medicines had failed to afford me relief. A friend induced me to try Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy made at Rondout, N. Y.

The effect was wonderful. By the time

I had taken two bottles I was completely cured and have had no trouble since."

ABOUT THE STATE.

Items of Interest Gleaned From Our Exchanges.

Mrs. Julia Wheeler, of Plymouth Five Corners, died Monday, September 2, which was her ninetieth birthday an-iversary.

Frank Rich of Roxbury was melting lead to run bullets when some of the molten metal flew up and struck him in the eye, probably destroying the sight.

Alexander Tuscany, of St. Albans and Herbert Donaldson of Swanton in one day took 43 pickers from Charcoal creek, Swanton, averaging five pounds in weight.

Ira Carpenter, of Emenburg, left town August 21 unknown to his family and his whereabouts are still unknown.
He is a farmer and well and favorably known in town.

Eames R. Hopkins of Rutland has been appointed district deputy grand exalted ruler of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks for the district of Vermont, to succeed R. C. Bowers of Montpelier.

The Rev. Alvin M. Smith, pastor of the Universalist church at Plainfield, will go to Hiram, Me., to succeed the Rev. H. H. Hoyt, who has been elected state president and secretary of the Universalist churches of Maine.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Silver, of Derby, celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage Wednesday, August 28.
Mr. and Mrs. Silver are assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Badger who attended them.
Fifty years ago, received their friends from 4 until 8 o'clock.

Richford is to hold a village meeting September 11 to discuss general public improvements. A new building for the fire department, widening Main street, the purchase of the old grist mill and saw mill property and street lighting are matters to be taken up at that time.

Ex-Gov. C. J. Bell, who has been in Ohio attending the Grange field meetings, will finish his work in that state Saturday, at Oberlin, at which time he will have appeared in fifteen different counties. Governor Bell expected to attend the state fair Wednesday and Thursday and he expects to speak at Clinton, N. Y., fair September 11.

Mitch Blay, of Barton, just discharged from prison, where he has been doing time for horse stealing, lost no time in reclaiming his old habits. He borrowed $18 from his father and went to a barn of Wilbur Moulton, lighted a lantern, and harnessed the horse. Mr. Moulton found the lighted lantern next morning but no trace of the rig can be discovered.

One of the features of the coming G. A. R. encampment at Saratoga will be the giant guard of 45 veterans. Every man must be at least six feet in height as of proportionate beam.
George W. Bridgman of Newbury has been chosen to represent Vermont. He is fully up to the standard physically with a correspondingly good military record.

Three Italians, arrested at Whitehall, N. Y., for the stabbing of Robert Mc-Call of Hydeville, have been discharged because of insufficient evidence. A party of Fair Haven men and the Italians got into a discussion at the station, and McCall was slashed in the hip. It was not possible to positively identify the man who did the deed. The wound was not a dangerous one.

The heavy rains filled the paw lake quicker than was expected would be the case and at 7:56 Thursday morning the first water trickled over the dam. When it became known that "Lake Wabun" in Morrisville was a reality, many visitors walked and rode down to see it.
Incidentally, its sudden filling relieved W. S. Cheney of the trouble of digging quite a piece of potatoes which are well under water.

W. E. Curtis, writing from Rutland to the Chicago Record-Herald, tells of a young lady in that locality who is suffering from a most peculiar nervous ailment. She sees and writes in reversed order. To read she is obliged to use a mirror, and other people in reading her letters have to employ the same means.

In all other respects she is normal. She has just returned from an European trip, during which she enjoyed the sights the same as any other intelligent person, except that everything that passed before her eyes was reversed.

Lightning struck the spire of St. Joseph's church in Burlington Thursday evening during the heaviest electric storm doing considerable damage. The clap of thunder accompanying the bolt was not particularly heavy but people who live in the vicinity were somewhat startled by a shower of broken boards which came down on the housetops and into the street. The bolt disarranged the wood work, both pulpits and the apparatus which rings the bell. The fire alarm bell was rung once, also. The alarm system was put out of commission for the time being but was soon put back into shape by Chief Niles and assistants.

KONAD AND CLOTHES GONE.

Fellows Boarders Would Like to Find The Smooth Appearing German.

Burlington, Sept. 9.—Several people in the city are wondering where Eugene Konad, a smooth appearing German from New York city, is hanging his hat. Konad arrived in the city last Monday morning and found a boarding place with Napoleon Rock at 92 St.
Paul street. He said he had a position as cook at the Mary Fletcher hospital.

Friday noon Richard Turpin, a coachman, and Henry Reinfrank, who boarded at the same place, discovered that a good part of their wardrobes and jewelry were gone and that Konad was also among the missing. Reinfrank misses a new suit of clothes, several shirts and two suits of underwear and Turpin mourns the loss of two scarf-ties and a valuable pair of cuff buttons.
One of the pins was presented to him several years ago by Mrs. W. Seward Webb, by whom he was employed.

It is thought that Konad took the morning boat for Plattsburg and the local police will try and locate him there. Konad was of slight build and about five feet, eight inches in height.

ALWAYS CHEERFUL.

Even When He Lost Both Feet He Could Find Consolation.

Brown's cheerfulness was a source of wonder and admiration to his friends, according to the Ladies' Home Journal. Either his religion or his philosophy taught him to accept everything as a wise dispensation. But then he had a large share of worldly goods, his friends argued, and nothing but adversity would shake his faith.

Therefore when a promising crop was washed away by a flood the neighbors were much astonished to hear him say: "It's all for the best. I was blessed with an overabundance of wheat." In the winter his house was burned to the ground. To his neighbors' acciliations he calmly responded, "The house never suited us anyway, so it is all for the best."

Other calamities befell Brown, but still he refused to be disheartened.
The climax came when he was in a railroad accident. Both feet were so badly crushed that amputation was necessary.

Sympathetic friends gathered from all quarters. They dreaded to hear the lamentations they were sure would greet them, for even Brown could hardly be expected to pass this lightly by.

"Guess you are pretty well discouraged, aren't you, with both feet cut off?" ventured some one. "Do you think this is all for the best?"

But Brown nodded his head, smiling wanly, and said:
"They were always cold anyway!"

Peanut Meal Bread.

Peanut meal has been for a long time a staple article in the dietary of the poor classes in Spain. Bread made from pure peanut meal is light and porous, but it is said to be un-palatable because of a persistent, poppylike taste. Rye bread containing 25 per cent of peanut meal cannot be distinguished from ordinary rye bread, while far more nutritious. Skim milk cheese is the only ordinary article of diet comparable to peanut meal in its percentage of nitrogenous matter.

Constantinople Firemen.

A disabled fireman of Constantinople does not necessarily leave the service after his mishap. If his legs and voice are still good, he may aspire to the position of fire chief.

Borax.

Travelers will find a small package of borax useful on their journeys. On trains, as often in hotels, the water supplied for washing is hard and dry to the skin, and a teaspoonful of borax added to a basinful of water will make a wonderful difference.

Lost and Found.

Lost between 9:30 p. m. yesterday and noon today, a bilious attack, with nausea and sick headache. This loss was occasioned by finding at the Red Cross Pharmacy a box of Dr. King's New Life Pills, the guaranteed cure for biliousness, malaria and jaundice. 25c.
